Approval of Agenda

The minutes for the June 21, 2023 meeting was approved by all the Shoora Members present.

Agenda Items, Updates & Announcements

- The Shoora discussed the potential sites for the Eid Al- Adha prayer.
- The Shoora approved the location and budget for the Eid celebration.
- The masjid has been cleaned and decluttered by our Shoora members.
- The Shoora agreed to have a deep cleaning of the masjid twice or three times a year.

- The Maintenance Committee, Jazaham Allahu Khairan, is working on doing some repair projects at the masjid and undertaking any and all repairs required to keep the masjid maintained and everything working properly.
- These projects include painting the doors and the men's side ceiling. Changing out the broken air conditioner unit with a new one. Replacing any damaged ceiling panels. Repair the holes on the wall by the men's restroom. To maintain the parking lot tidy and uncluttered, the individual garbage cans will be removed and replaced with a single large dumpster.
- The Shoora had a consultation with a civil engineer about building the fence around the masjid and he approved the fence and the materials. Inshaa Allah, the permit will be obtained shortly so that construction on the fence surrounding the masjid can begin.
- The Shoora discussed the placement of a new Weekend Islamic School Principal after Sister Manal, the previous principal, stepped down.
- The Shoora is planning a community gathering in the masjid to honor Sister Manal for her dedication and all the services she provided to the Weekend Islamic School as a Principal, Assistant Principal and a teacher. The date and time will be announced once determined on the masjid's webpage and Facebook.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:25 pm by Brother Shams and ended with a duaa by Dr. Eslam.
